2025 FCAO SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM FOR ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

The FCAO Scholarship Program of Academic Excellence, grants scholarships to high-achieving undergraduate students of Hellenic descent.

Based on merit, the scholarship program of the FCAO aims to recognize and reward exemplary academic achievement. Acknowledging and honoring academically talented students with monetary awards is a compelling motivator for the recipients to continue pursuing academic excellence, resulting in significant accomplishments to become future leaders and contribute positively to the community and society. The FCAO Scholarship Program is the result of generous donations from dedicated community members and other supporters.

Scholarship Awards and Ceremony

The FCAO Scholarship Program grants a $2,500 award to each recipient. Applications will be accepted from February 20th through April 30th. Scholarships will be presented to recipients at the FCAO Scholarship Ceremony during the Fall. The Scholarship Ceremony celebrates the community's commitment to the recipients' educational goals. It is an opportunity for the recipients to meet with their scholarship sponsors. All scholarship recipients are strongly encouraged to attend the awards ceremony.

Mission Statement

The Federation of Cypriot American Organizations (FCAO) is a non-profit entity representing 28 Greek Cypriot American associations located throughout the United States. Its mission is to develop good relations and solidarity among its chapters, promote their goals and represent their interests, and coordinate their social, educational, philanthropic, and cultural activities. The FCAO undertakes and promotes charitable activities primarily within the Cypriot and Greek-American communities, preserving and promoting the Greek language and the Greek and Cypriot history and cultural heritage in the United States. It also supports the leadership of the Greek Orthodox Church in the establishment and preservation of the Greek American identity and the Greek Orthodox faith in the United States.

MISSION/PERSONAL STATEMENT

Describe your educational and career goals and address your current educational training, what you hope/plan to learn during the rest of our university training and your career plans after graduation (400-500 words).

COMMUNITY ESSAY

The mission of the FCAO is to preserve and promote Hellenic Cypriot culture, heritage, principles, and ideals in the United States. This is achieved through coordinating and promoting various cultural, charitable, educational, fraternal, and professional activities.

The FCAO acknowledges the critical role youth play in ensuring the longevity and continued success of our mission. To ensure the future of our mission, the FCAO, actively seeks innovative strategies to engage young people.

Please submit a 400-600 words essay outlining two specific initiatives to effectively encourage youth participation in preserving and promoting our mission. These initiatives could include: programs, events, activities, hands-on workshops, digital campaigns or other creative ideas. For each initiative, your essay should clearly address the following points:

- (1) Practical steps for implementation
- (2) Target age group
- (3) Potential benefits
- (4) Reasoning behind your choice of these initiatives.
